In determining whether a 'significant dealing' has occurred, La Trobe Financial expects that the following non-exhaustive list of factors may be relevant for distributors:

- whether a customer outside of the target market has acquired the product; and/or
- the extent to which the acquisition of the product by the customer outside of the target market has the potential to harm or has caused harm (including the amount of any financial loss); and/or
- the nature and extent to which the distribution of the product is inconsistent with the TMD.

The above list is not exhaustive and distributors should consider, having regard to the circumstances of their business, whether other factors or events may suggest that a significant dealing has occurred. A significant dealing may be identified through the distributor's product governance arrangements, as a result of a consumer complaint or the occurrence of a Review Trigger. The purpose of having this information is to enable La Trobe Financial to identify promptly whether a Review Trigger, or another event or circumstance that would reasonably suggest that the TMD is no longer appropriate, has occurred.
